Of Telegruph to the Times.

ABERDEEN (Dak.), April 3.—|By the Associated Press.] Leols, the county seat of McPherson county, 35 miles northwest of Aberdeen, was destroyed by prairie fire during yesterday's whirlwind. Sixty dwellings and business houses were burned, entailing a loss of $150,000. The only buildings remaining are the courthouse, two stores and six dwellings. C. W. Old and Thomas Wardell were terribly burned, and Leola is an interior town with no rail-ads or telegraph, and further particulars anot be obtained. Persons who drove roads or telegraph, and further particulars cannot be obtained. Persons who drove across the country to Westport, the nearest railroad station, say the surrounding country is nearly devastated. Hundreds of farmhouses are in ashes, and the carcasses of burned animals are lying along the road. VERMILION *(DAL), April %.—Word reached here teday of a very destructive prairie fire north and west of here. Gliette's saw mill and 800 cords of wood were entirely destroyed, also several other buildings. A number of narrow escapes are reported.

BLUNT (Dak.), April 3.—The whole country around Blunt is being devastated by prairie fires. Several buildings in the suburbe have been burned, but the city as yet is safe. J. I. Richardson lost 500 sneep, cattle and hors and many farmers are homeless. A strong wind arose before the fire, doing considerable damage.

SCOTLAND (Dak.), April 3.—Another dreadful prairie fire swept over the country south of Scotland yesterday, and its path is marked by the smouldering embers of many homes. A high wind prevailed. The grass was as dry as tinder. The terrific force of the fire was beyond description. Besides isolated farmhouses, barns and contents, it is reported that the town of Olivet, the county seat of Hutchinson county, is more than haif destroyed.

Half a dozen houses were burned and many settlers lost barns, stock and a large quantity of hay and grain. The wind blew 30 to 60 miles an hour and sent the burning embers over plowed ground and fire-breaks several rods wide, setting fire to everything in their course. The fire came up so rapidly that settlers had only time to save themselves, leaving their property to the mercy of the fiances.

JACKSON (Minn.), April 3.—The prairie fires prove more general than was at first believed. Additional losses are reported from all directions, and messengers bring news of stubborn fights to save endangered property. Fires were raging in every direction, and each seemed to pursue a distinct course of its own. A fire which would have swept this village from the face of the earth has been traced to its origin. The search culminated this afternoon in the arrest of James Thavnick. When arraigned he pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to $25 and costs, or in default thereof 60 days in jall. Much dissatisfaction is expressed about this sentence. Public opinion is that justice has been too highly tempered with FORTY HOUSES BURNED. MILLER (Dak.), April 3.—Prairie fires last night destroyed about 40 houses, many barns, a large number of horses and cattle, and left about 40 families destitute in the southern part of this county. A terrible gale of wind added to the terrors of the situation. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

ATCHISON'S AFFAIRS.

An Appeal Issued to the Stockholders of the Road.

Boston, April 3.—[By the Associated Press.] Kidder, Peabody & Cô. publicly announced that the time had come for a radical change in the management of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fô Company, and call upon the stockholders to send their proxies for the annual meeting. These proxies, they say, "will be used in our best discretion to secure conservative, economical management, with frequent, prompt, candid reports to the stockholders of the company's earnings, expenses and all other matters of interest. It is important to every stockholder that his stock sheuld be represented."

The directors of the company held a meeting yesterday and practically decided upon a "regular" ticket. This ticket will contain several new names, and New York interests are likely to get representation. Director Magoun says: "It is enough to the present to state that the company's financial wants are amply supplied. The talk of a receivership has no basis whatever, and so far as refunding is concerned, that has not been talked of by the directors. Neither has the July interest question been disoussed." Settlers Scourged

Mansfield, (O.), April 3.—[By the Associated Press.] A fiendish attempt was made to wreck the Pennsylvania limited vestibule passenger train near Canton, about midnight. Pieces of iron were tightly wedged into a switch. The east-bound passenger train passed safely over the obstruction, but the unusual jolting caused the train men to be alarmed, and they reported the maiter to the operator. He investigated the cause, and stopped the they reported the matter to the operator. He investigated the cause, and stopped the limited before it reached the switch.

The irons had been placed in the switch with the east ends raised so as to derail the west-bound train, while allowing the east-bound to pass over with only a little jarring. The switch is only 60 feet from the bridge and the momentum would have thrown the whole train into the creek and the consequences would have been ter rible.

The National Committee of the Boulangist party amounces that Boulanger departed from France by the advice of the committee. Four members of the committee were opposed to this step. Theband, the principal election organizer of the party, and Deputy Michelin have seceeded from the committee, as a protest against Boulanger's action in leaving the country. It is reported that Susini, Laur, and other Boulangist Deputies, have adopted a similar course. Theband also retires from the editorship of the Cocarda, the Boulangist paper. He says he is disgusted with the secrecy maintained by Boulanger, which tends to mislead the latter's friends. Michelin contends that Boulanger should have remained and faced even marryroom. The remained and faced even martyrdom. The Bonapartists approve the General's course, while the Royalists stigmatize his flight as an act of cowardice.

Senator Naquet and Deputles Laisant and Laguerre wrote to Boulanger about the middle of March, advising him to fice. The General strongly objected to this course, as he knew he would be accused of cowardice if he left the country. Finally Naquet and two Deputles threatened to secede from the party unless he took their advice, and it was this threat that caused his departure. It is rumored that the Government is about to issue a decree of banishment against Boulanger.

THE LEAGUERS' TRIAL.

At the trial of the leaders of the League of Patriots today the Assistant Procureur accused the league of connecting itself with the army to form a new party. He denounced the issue by the league of its manifesto condemning the bombardment of the Atchinoff expedition at Sagallo by the French Admiral, and declared the issue was an act of stupidity.

Laguerre, one of the accused, vehemently protested against the Procureur's language.

The Nanticoke is the vessel which was supposed to have been sunk in collision with the Conserva off Norfolk, Va., one day last week. IMPORTED MUSICIANS.

Attempt to Bring Them Under the Alien Labor Act. Alien Labor Act.

NEW YORK, April' S.—[By the Associated Press.] The Musical Union of this city is endeavoring to prevent the landing of strolling bands from Europe, who are in the habit of coming here in spring and re-turning in fall with money earned during the habit of coming here in spring and returning in fail with money earned during the summer. It is urged that such immigrants come within the provisions of the foreign contract labor law, but heretofore they have escaped detention by swearing they came as individuals, and not as bands under leaders. When the steamer Western Land arrived this morning from Antwerp, Superintendent Simpson of the Landing Bureau at Castle Garden discovered that there were no less than 400 musicians or board, nearly all of them having spent the summers here for years past. Representatives of the Musical Union learned of the influx, and immediately urged that strict investigation be made. The suggestion is made that they can be held under the pauper act if evidence is not forthcoming to warrant their return under the foreign contract labor law. A representative of the Knights of Labor is interesting himself in the matter.

THIRD DAY OF THE COUNTY TEACHERS CONCLAVE.

from Kindergarten Methods to Shaping the Manners of the Na-tion-Pleasant Words from State Superintendent Hoitt.

The third day's session of the Teachers' Institute yesterday pro-ceeded in accordance with the programme prepared. The general opinion of the session is one of approval, and the interest in the exercises is excellent.

Mrs. Clara A. Burr continued her instruction on the combination of kinlergarten with primary work.

She spoke at first on language and gymnastics, taking for an object the oranges. Have it peeled and teach the parts, and from it gather impressions oranges. Have it peeled and teach the parts, and from it gather impressions of good language.

In this connection she showed how she would teach gymnastics, not the angular movements, but the curved and more graceful. Have an orange placed on the floor before each child. Have them reach it, slowly moving, first the cyclids, then the neck, shoulders and hips. Have the order in picking up the orange reversed.

In regard to penmanship she gave the following suggestions: Teach the sentence first, having it carefully copied. Follow this with the development of the forms of words, letters and finally, perhaps, the principles.

In regard to position, aim only to have the forefinger curved, about one inch from the pen point, with the hand flat on the deek.

Teach accuracy, but do not destroy individuality in penmanship any more than in any other branch of study.

After recess Mrs. Burr took up number work. Her plan is very novel. Taking first the number 10, she teaches all the combinations that make that number. She stated that she had used the plan with eminent success.

She closed her work with a brief address on the benefits of clay-modeling.

Intermediate Section.

The exercises were opened by Mrs. Ida Blochman on the subject of "Narbacco. Teachers were urged to give the subject careful study before at-the subject careful study before attempting to teach it. Experiments were shown illustrating the evil effects of the use of tobacco, followed by a short talk from Yaggy's chart.

Supt. W. S. Monroe gave an interesting talk on "Geography and Sand Modeling." He suggested methods to develop the faculties of observation and imagination.

As play is the Creator's method of developing a child's mind, sand modeling is the natural means of giving the child the idea of form, surface and location.

This lesson was followed by Prof. J. A. Scarrit on "Vecal Culture." Great stress was given to the development of the voice, and several methods were suggested and illustrated by a drill in scales.

After a song by the section, led by Prof. J. A. Scarritt of Santa Ana, the same gentleman discussed the subject of "Vocal Music."

Prof. Scarritt said that on coming to California he had learned with surprise and pleasure that the laws of California required the teaching of vocal music in the public schools. In this point California stands ahead of many of the States. The question for teachers is, "How may the subject be taught to the best advantage?" In discussing this question the speaker reviewed the history of instruction in this branch in the public schools of the country. The movement began in Boston, in 1830. At first the subject was introduced only into one or two of the higher grammar grades. The Boston Academy of Music coöperated with the Board of Education in improving methods in teaching vocal music, but not until 1864 did the subject come into general recognition, and the efforts of the mevers were crowned with success.

nition, and the efforts of the mevers were crowned with success. Singing does not begin with learning to read music. Success requires that this subject begin with the youngest pupils and that instruction continue regularly throughout the years of school life.

The teacher of vocal music should be independent of text-books and able to give at any time a lively, spirited dictation exercise.

The lecturer spent the remainder of his time in drilling the section on the scale.

The lecturer spent the remainder of his time in drilling the section on the scale.

B. R. Grogan of Spadra followed with the subject of "Civil Government." He indorsed the approval of this subject expressed by the County Superintendent in his address on Monday, and gave a résumé of the judiciary, showing how it might be studied in county, State and Nation.

After the recess Supt. Monroe discussed the subject of "Supplementary Reading." He thought that there is no longer any question about the value of this work; the only questions are, what to read and how to get the books. He advised that the reading introduced should in every case be upon some definite subject, as geography, natural history or American history. Several good works, as Johonnot's. Natural History Reader, were recommended.

The remarks of Supt. Monroe were followed by a general discussion concerning the merits and demerits of several books common in school libraries. Opinion differed as to the propriety of allowing children to read Oliver Optic's books. There was no dissent to the judgment that "Peck's Bad Boy" is nothing but injurious. Some objections were raised to the study of "Tom Brown's School Days" in school, but a vote in the section brought out a large mejority in favor of the book.

Afternoon Bession.

brought out a large majority in favor of the book.

Afternoon Session.

The assembly was called to order by Supt. Seaman, and the exercises were opened with a song by the institute, led by Prof. J. A. Scarritt.

Miss Clara Lillibridgeof the Los Angeles High School was then introduced, and read an excellent paper upon "PHYSICAL CULTURE."

The lady argued that it is a mistake to suppose that physical exercise should be directed to the production of large and strong muscles; the other textures as well must receive attention. So numerous are the varieties of opinion as to the methods by which the highest order of physical culture may be attained that it becomes an inexhaustible subject.

Manual training was mentioned as a ing of the eye and hand in pupil's power of observation and give precision to the work.

The value of marching and other so-called physical exercises in school was discussed, and the conclusion was reached that the best results and grandest achievements are obtained only by the union of the great powers of man—observation, reflection, action.

only by the union of the great powers of man—observation, reflection, action.

PSYCHOLOGY.

Supt. Monroe followed with an address upon the subject "Needs and Methods of Studying Psychology." No subject is more important for the teacher, but it is very commonly found that teachers take but little interest in it. They are prone to adopt the methods of another person, instead of studying underlying principles for themselves. Some understanding of the subject must be the property of every successful teacher. It is needed before any proper task can be assigned, or before proper judgments can be passed upon the actions of pupils.

Reluctance to adopt new methods comes from a lack of misunderstanding of psychology. Mind growth not being understood, the teacher can only imitate and fellow a method for the reason that others have done so.

Teachers were advised to study their own mental power; to learn what circumstances the best work can be accomplished. The children must be studied in like manner, and all these results compared with some good book upon the subject of mind.

Power of attention must be studied. Attention alone distinguishes the thinker from the dreamer. Pupils fail continually to do their work, because they do not have or do not exercise attention.

Physiology is an introduction to the

Physiology is an introduction to the study of psychology, and is most valuable for understanding. The degree of attention at any time depends very largely upon the amount of nervous energy at command. Likewise the senses need to be understood in order to be trained. F. A. Molyneaux of Pomona next discussed the subject of

"People should be as courteous to a man as to a picture—namely, to give it the advantage of a good light."
"Teachers should constitute a brotherhsod, with a great deal more of fraternal feeling.

tesy is one of the greatest needs in our land.

"Is there any greater need in all the wide range of American education than the cultivation of courtesy in every relation of life? Since the moral effect of this high-pressure living is to make us unmindful of the rights and feelings of others, is it not a moral responsibility upon every teacher in the land to check this unconscious haste?

responsibility upon every teacher in the land to check this unconscious haste?

"The absence of courtesy is caused mainly by thoughtlessness, impatience, haste, vanity, selfishness, jealousy and egotism. Its presence may be secured by drowning egotism in brotherly love, decapitating envy and selfishness with charity, and scourging the other evil propensities.

"As a professor, we should cultivate not only a reverence for law in an abstract sense; for position; for age and the richness of its experience; for sacred things and their public observance; but also for the gentic courtesies of life, its proprieties and reasonable conventionalities, for they tend to a sacred reverence for our own honor, which will preserve our souls white and our hands spotless to touch—mold and shape the character of this Nation's future.

and shape the character of this Nation's future.

"Can we, as educators, ignore the responsibility of inculcating principles that shall yield the fruitage of a self-sacrificing manhoed and womanhood, willing to surrender personal prejudice and narrow ambition to the brighter good of a nation's welfare? America is too great and her position among the nations of the earth too proud to have that greatness marred by any hational faults which it is within the power of her people andher educators to correct. Since it is a law of our beings that our interest strengthen in that for which we sacrifice most, this constant care of our habits of thought, mind and action as a nation's schoolmasters and representative, will not only improve our individual characters, but, finding expression in the highest type of proour individual characters, but, finding expression in the highest type of professional courtesy, so impress the national character that the day will speed when, as the light that slowly illuminated the eastern sky eighteen centuries ago, paling the star with its celestial splendor, proclaimed at midnight to the watching shepherds tidings of great joy; so shall the radiating glory of the American Republic point a world of struggling humanity to the land where the simple dignity of worthy, courtly manhood transcends to the land where the simple dignity of worthy, courtly manhood transcends the hrilliancy of rank and inheritance."

After the recess, Prof. More annunced the next meeting of the State Teachers' Association to be held in this city during the first week of January, 1890. As this will be the first meeting of the association ever held in Southern California, teachers were urged to make it a large and enthusiastic meeting.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT HOFT

was introduced, and entertained the assembly for the rest of the day's session. He congratulated the teachers of the county upon the fact that they had in Supt. Seaman an able and energetic officer, and he also congratulated Supt. Seaman upon having as fine an appearing body of teachers as he had met anywhere.

He spoke of changes in the school law made by the last Legislature. Hereafter grammar grade certificates of one county may be recognized in another. All school library books must be stamped with a school stamp to be furnished by the County Superintendent. This regulation is to prevent loss by theft.

Bupt. Hoitt thanked the superintendents and teachers of their county for the interest that they had shown towards making the San Francisco meeting of the National Educational Association a success. He also announced the next meeting at Nashville, Tenn., July 16th and 20th, and the summer meeting of the State Teachers' Association at Pacific Grove.

Every teacher was advised to be a reader of an educational publication, and attention was called to the Pacific Educational Journal as the official organ of the State department.

It was suggested that teachers endeavor to beautify their school-rooms with flowers and pictures, and above all they were advised to have in every room a United States flag. They should teach their pupils the history and the meaning of the flag, that the children may learn to love it, and the liberty of which it is the symbol.

No Case Against Hack Driver Hugh Thompson.

The examination of Hugh Thomp on for murder was held by Justice Savage yesterday. Thompson is the hack driver, who, on the 16th of February, ran over an old Mexican named Priedo near the Pico House on North Main street. The old fellow died the next day and Thompson was arrested on a charge of murder. The evidence in the case on the part of the prosecuin the case on the part of the prosecution was very weak. They introduced Pantaleon Zabaleta, who testified that he saw the hack run over something. He was 500 feet away, however, and could not even identify the hack driver. The only thing he could swear to was that the hack ran over an object, which he found to be a man, when he came up to the place of the accident.

A Mrs. Small was introduced.

ject, which he found to be a man, when he came up to the place of the accident.

A Mrs. Small was introduced to prove that the victim of the accident was at her house during the afterfroon of the day on which it took place, while Tomas Feliz made the startling statement that he came down town with the deceased in the evening. That he left him and after some time heard that he was run over and killed. The prosecution closed its case with Dr. MacGowan, who testified that the injuries which the man received had no doubt caused his death.

There seemed to be small necessity for the defense to introduce any evidence after that upon which the State depended for the commitment of the accused upon the very serious charge brought against him, but they did offer some to prove the good character of Thompson. It was shown that he had not been reckless. The old man, who was drunk, had staggered under the horses' feet, and it was impossible for Thompson to stop them before he was run over. He offered to do all in his power, after the accident, brought his hack back, and offered to carry the wounded man to the station. He afterward paid the funeral expenses of the old Mexican, and his conduct in the affair was straightforward and manly. The Coroner's jury exonerated him from any blame in the matter.

When these facts were all brought out, Justice Savage was not long in dismissing the charge against Thompson. It was remarked that it was queer that a charge of murder should have been brought against Thompson at all, in view of the filmsy testimony which was offered in the examination.

as the man was under the influence of liquor and could give no proper account of himself, he was taken in custody and locked up on suspicion. It appears that there is something of a story in the affair and that this is not Reed's first offense. He came to Los Angeles from Mansfield, O., some four years ago, and has since resided here. He is a member of a highly respectable and wealthy family, and is himself a graduate of Oberlin College. He is a member of a highly respectable and wealthy family, and is himself a graduate of Oberlin College. He is a married man and at his old home moved in the best society, having been a church member and president of the Young Men's Christian Association. He took to drink, and soon squandered his own fortune and the greater part of his mother's, almost rulning her. He finally came to California, and his mother and sister, the latter the wife of a well-known citizen, are now here. When Reed gets on one of his periodicals, and runs out of money, he has a habit of signing his mother's name to checks and getting them cashed, and has played this little game several times, the checks being taken up by the family to save themselves from being disgraced. He has no money, and it was while working this little game that he was caught. Yesterday afternoon his relatives called on Chief Burns, and explained the case to him, and it is probable that he will be locked up in the County Jail for 100 days on a charge of vagrancy.

WOMAN AND DRESS.

IRS. MILLER, THE GREAT RE-FORMER, TO LECTURE HERE.

Large Wardrobe, and How She Changes Costumes on the Stage. in Plain View of Her Audience— About Undergarments.

If there is one thing upon which women are not amateurs; that is, most women, it is dress. When a man enters upon this sacred field with his bald generalizations and hazy information, he is treated with superciliousness or at least mild scorn by his female relatives and friends. But when a woman herself throws down the gauntlet to her sex, it is Greek meeting Greek. Those gentlemen in Los Angeles who have endured a long season of snubbing from their friends of the gentler sex, when they have ventured any suggestions as to the absurdities of the modern apparel of women, will be rejoiced to learn that Mrs. Annie Jenness Miller of Boston, will fight their battle this week, commencing tonight at the Los Angeles Theatre. She is a champion worthy of any foeman's steel; beautiful, accomplished and intelligent; withal, a charming lecturer. She is the accust courier of a new dispensation. Mrs. Miller brings with her the "divided skirt," and various innovations, which are said to make lovely woman doubly dangerous in a captivating sense. The dress of the nineteenth century is the subject upon which the fair lecturer will address her sisters of Los Angeles, and she will illustrate her lecture by an object lesson, from some portions of which poor, ignorant, awkward man will be excluded. Mrs. Miller is not only a reformer, but a handsome woman, a persuasive combinating. She has developed some startling and original ideas upon dress and, most wonderful, claims that it can be at once fashionable, graceful and artistic, and comfortable. As most wonderful, claims that it can be at once fashionable, graceful and artistic, and comfortable, when the propers on their ground the lady must needs have a genume article or at years they are on their ground the lady must needs have a genume article or at years they are on their ground the lady must needs have a genume article or a stage and, dropping the circular, stands revealed in the undergarments of her system. She rebelled at the insinuation that an overruling Providence was continued to do with it, and that she could improve her own health by observing common sense in her dress and diet, Miss Jenness unwittingly origin inated a movement of slow but sure growth. She began a system of physical culture, and entered upon a study

GROWTH-PROGRESS-PROMISE.

The promise for good harvests was perhaps never better, in this section, than at present. We have had coplous and timely rains, favoring sunshine and freedom from blighting frosts, as well as continuous growth. There is no reason why Southern California ple, or something worse. should not be healthfully prosperous and make rapid strides in material adness to make the most of our op-portunities. Better than boom cities more desirable and inviting field for productiveness is almost without limit. It will not be a bad thing for us to plant new orchards to take the place of those which have been cut down to make room for town lots. We have town lots enough now for hundreds of those which have been cut down to make room for the lots. We have town lots enough now for hundreds of the lots of the lo thousands of people. These people will come by and by. We have no reason for anxiety on that score. But while we are waiting for them let us make the country everywhere attractive by planting and sowing. Talking about what the lands of this section will produce is well enough as far as it goes, but proving the correctness of our assertions by actual harvests is a good deal better. Cultivate Southern California as England is cultivated, for instance, and it would be no task to estimate its wealth. We have hardly gun to realize yet what our soil will produce. Take Riverside, for example. It took courage to plant a town there upon the so-called desert. "What will this arid waste grow, and what can you hope to reap from this desert of sand and barrenness?" was the sentiment of those who watched the beginning of things there. But, now, look at the grand orchards and the extensive vineyards that have been planted there, and the general air of thrift and of beauty that surrounds the place! The oranges of Riverside have become mous throughout the country, and its raisins are not excelled in the markets of the land. Yet Southern California has many hundred thousand unimproved acres of richer soil than Riverside can boast of. Intelligent agriculture would make this section of the State the most marvelously beautiful of any portion of the country as well as the most inviting. In this climate trees have grown 18 feet in one season and grapevines have reached a length of 30 feet. What a soil for growth! What a climate for rich and abundant harvests! If the people of Southern California would only set about perfecting their agricultural wealth, they would discover that it was a better anchor for the future than all the real-estate crazes and business booms that could be manu factured in a century. Let money flow into the State, but do not let it be changed into highly improved farms; let the arid wastes be provided with an abundance of water; plant new orchards and vineyards; build new railroads and set all the machinery of agriculture, manufactures and commerce astir, and the old boom days will be speedily discounted by the idle. Let our wide pasture lands be changed into highly improved farms; will be speedily discounted by the more desirable and prosperous days of steady, healthful growth and develop-

ARISE AND EXPLAIN.

Georgia has ten members of Congress, but the total vote cast in that State for members of the Fiftieth Congress, which has just expired, is 8988 less than were cast for member of Congress in the Sixth District of Califor nia. In the Fourth District, 2909 votes were cast for the Democrat and 330 for the Republican. Mr. Grimes (Democrat), of course, was elected. Mr. Stewart (Democrat) of the Fifth received 2999 votes, and had "no opposition." Several months ago E. M. The affair loose woman about town. The affair was fully written up in The Thirs when it occurred, and caused something of a seasation, many persons thinking that an injustice had been done him. Yesterday it was reported on the streets that he had absconded, leaving numerous debts behind him. The last seen of him was on Monday night, and Tuesday the woman with whom he had been living was on the streets drunk, raising a row over being given the slip. It is believed that the company will not lose anything, but it is reported that several of the drivers and other employés about the stables have been caught for sums ranging from $5 to $400. The two largest debts are due drivers, one being for $365 and one for $400, both, it is said, being for borrowed money. It is also said that a number of small trademen will also suffer.

Stole a Sack of Lemons.

Yesterday morning an old man named George Ackerman, who has been lodging at the police station at intervals for some months past, stole a sack of lemons from a fruit stand on Alameda street. He was detected by the proprietor, and held by him until Officer Vignes was sent for, who brought him to the station, where he was booked for petty larceny and locked up. The old fellow promptly acknowledged the theft, and later in the day was transferred to the County Jail. Ackerman claims to be an old soldier, and to have been in an Illinois regiment during the late war. Several weeks ago he was told that he could not sleep at the station any more, and it is more than likely that he stole the lemons for the purpose of getting locked up and taken care of. THE GREAT NORTHWEST.

THE GREAT NORTHWEST.

Gen. Greely's Good Word for Oregon and Washington.

Washington, April 3.—[By the Associated Press.] Last July the Senste passed a resolution directing the transmission of reports prepared under the direction of the Chief Signal Officer upon the climate and climatic conditions of Oregon and Washington Territory. These reports, together with illustrative charts and a letter from Gen. Greely, have justiceenjpublished, and in view of the emigration to the far Northwest, will be found to be of general interest. The rainfall of the North Pacific Coast is the heaviest in the United States, ranging from 70 to 107 inches annually, but this enormous fall covers only 6 per cent. of the area of Oregon and Washington Territory. On the other hand, the area where less than 10 inches falls is less than 5 per cent. of the whole. Wheat can be grown in nine-tanths of Oregon and Washington without irrigation, owing to the equable rainfall. Agricultural operations are more fruitful with small rainfall than in some sections of other States with a considerably larger precipitation.

Remarkably equable temperature conditions also obtain, the entire range of mean annual imperature ver this territory being but 5½ from 45½ at The Colville in Northeastern Washington Territory to 54 at Ashiand, Or. Along the coast the range of temperature in summer time is only 3½, from 66° at Port Angels, Wash., to 59½ at Ft. Stevens, Or. During the winter months the mean temperature of more than half these States is above the freezing point, and on the coast it ranges between 40° and 45°. Gen. Greely says: "To summarize—Oregon and Washington Territory to 54° at Ashiand, Or. Along the coast the range of temperature during the winter months from Occurs during the winter months from Central during the winter months from December to February, and in all cases the wet season gives place gradually to a dry season, during July and August While the preponderating amount of rain falls during the winter, yet the spring, early summer and late

THE BROOKLYN ALL RIGHT.

No apprehension is felt at the Navy Department on account of the U.S.S. Brooklyn, which a British steamer reported with a broken shaft. The shaft was broken while on the China station and the accident was reported to the department, and resulted in her being ordered home, under sail by way of Cape Horn, the existest passage for a sailing vessel, instead of by way of the Cape of Good Hope, which would have been her course under steam. The department heard from her from St. Thomas, West Indies, on the Sist ult. long after she was spoken by the British vessel. All hands were well. She is expected in New York in about two weeks.

Collector Magone of New York was at the Treasury Department and had interview with Secretary Windom and Assistant Secretary Tichenor today. The latter said Magone's visit related entirely to routine business of his office. From other sources it is learned that he placed his resignation at the Secretary's disposal.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

The commission to select a site for a navy yard on the Pacific Coast has returned to Washington. Its president, Capt. All Wahan, had an interview with the Secretary of the Treasury yesterday.

It is understood that W. O. Bradley of Kentucky has declined the Corean mission, to which he was nominated a few days ago.

Va., says: Last night, as Editor Reber, of the State Tribune, was standing in a grocery store, he was accosted by Gov. Wilson, who shook his fist under the editor's nose, and threatened him with personal violence for criticisms made in the paper on the Governor's official actions. The grocery keeper, not being an admirer of the Governor, ordered him out of the store, and as he falled to go, summarily ejected him by force, with an injunction never to enter his doors again. This is the second attack made on Reber by Wilson during the past four weeks, friends interposing each time. His Fist at an Editor.

O'TAWA, April 3.— By the Associated Press. In the Senate today McDonaid of British Columbia interrogated the Government regarding the recent proclamation of President Harrison respecting Bering Sea. Senator MacIness, also of British Columbia, read an editorial from a United States paper to the effect that one-half of Bering Sea belonged exclusively to the United States, in conclusion he urged the Government to ask the imperial Government to set the function at once and ferever.

Kaulbach rose to speak, but MacIness interrupted him to state that the United States had put forth a pretension in 1887 to exclusive privileges in the sea and had seized British vessels.

Abbott, leader of the Government and he did not understand the proclamation to assert any new right by the United States, or any right over Bering's Sea. He believed the American Government contended that certain portions of Bering Sea were exclusively under American jurisdiction. The Canadian Government would continue to act in accordance with the opinion of Lord Salisbury. The just demand of British subjects for compensation for damage done by these illegal selzures would not be abandoned.

Argument.

LONDON, April & — By Cable and Associated Press. When the Parnell Commission met this morning Sir Charles Russell sion met this morning Sir Charles Russell resumed his argument on behalf of the Parnellites. He contended that the objects of the Irish National League were justifiable before God and man. The issue before the commission depended upon the proof that Parnell and his colleagues, under cloak of a land movement, had planned murders and outrages. If no such evidence was produced the commission must declare the accused to be men who were earnestly endeavoring to lift an intolerable burden from the shoulders of their countrymen. The examination of Parnell was fixed for Tuesday next.

The new fourth party in the field has settled the matter of the election by the people, and early in the day an election was een to be improbable. The new party was born for the single purpose of opposing resubmission to the people of the prohibition amendment. The party was made up largely of Republicans, men who have beamendment. The party was made up largely of Republicans, men who have before refused to affiliate with the Prohibition party, though believing in that party's general objects, and who, on this occasion, when they divorced themselves from the Resubmissionists, still remain spart from the third party which was working for a similar purpose against resubmission. They nominated an independent State ticket, but in Providence and most of the towns joined with a third party on the Legislature, ticket.

The result is that while there were four general tickets in the field there was only the usual number of Legrissiure tickets.

The Legislature is Republican in each branch, which will be reduced if this city is Democratic, as it is likely to be. The Legislature will vote to resubmit the Prohibitory amendment.

Thirty towns out of 36, including all cities but Providence, give Davis (Dem.), 10,094; Ladd (Rep., 9174; Richardson (Proh.), 903; Chace (law enforcement), 1925. Davis lacks 1835 of a majority.

On the island of Tonga the hurricane created great havoe. Thirty persons perlahed.

San Francisco, April 3.—News of the damage done at Tabiti by the storm caused some excitement among those in this city interested in the islands, but they thought the account of the damage was exagerated. The harbor at Papeete is inciceed by a coral reef, which would keep off the waves, and the town is surrounded by a levee four feet high, while the houses are elevated three feet above this. On the damage might be considerable. If the storm had done damage at Tabiti, it must have devastated several other islands farther south. American interests on Tabiti represent a capital of $500,000.

Mathew Turner, who has an agency at Tabiti, said he believes the news true. The islands are thickly populated, and it is possible that thousands of natives were drowned without loss of life occurring at Papeete. He believed the bark City of Papeete was in the harbor.

At present there are four vessels engaged in the Tabiti trade, and carrying the French mails: the Bonanza, City of Papeete Tropic Bird, and Tabiti; also the United States steamship line between the islands

Kimberly to Stay at Samos-His Coming Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—[By the Associated Press.] The steamer Hinemon, tendered to Admiral Kimberly by the New Zealand Government, for use in aid of the sufferers at Samoa, is a small vessel, in model resembling a yacht. She has been used principally in the Australian lightused principally in the Australian lighthouse service and in carrying the Premier and other colonial representatives in their tripe about the colonies. The representative of the New Zealand Government in this city says it is not probable that ahe will be used in the transportation of sailors, but she is more likely to carry a cargo of clothes and provisions to Samoa. Capt. Fairchild is an American, halting from the Eastern States, and is considered one of the best officers in the service.

The Navy pay-office in this city has been ordered by the Washington authorities to forward to Samoa by the steamer Zealandia all mail addressed to naval officers at Samoa. This order causes the navy pay employes to believe that Admiral Kimberly and all officers except those who come here in charge of men will remain at Apla for some months to come.

PAGO PAGO HARBOR.

A Naval Station Not to be Established There at Once.

ASHINOTON, April 3.—[By the Associated Press.] It is unlikely that the Navy Department will proceed to establish a naval station at the harbor of Pago Pago, on the Samoan Islands, until the Berlin conference concludes its work. The last Congress apprepriated $100,000 for this purpose, and the money is now available, but it is thought that any radical step in this direction might tend to jeopardize the process of the conference. Beside the 600 tons of coal that were sent to Samoa on board the Monongabela and which should be there now, the ship Sachem which sailed from New York a fortnight ago, carried 2000 tons and should make the passage in about 90 days.

and should make the passage in about 95 days.

The Trenton when wrecked at Samoa carried down with her some five modern rifled guns. These may be readily placed on another vessel or used in the fortification of the new naval station at Pago Pago, if they can be recovered. Consequently some curiosity is expressed by naval officers as to whether Admiral Kimberly has taken steps to raise the guns from the shallow harbor.

PASADENA, April 3 .- [Correspond nes of THE TIMES. A repres tive body of citizens met in the Board of Trade rooms at 4 o'clock this afternoon to discuss the boulevard project.

The meeting was called to reduce the contract of the cont meeting was called to order by binting P. M. Green to the chair, and E. E. Ferdham secretary. The first speech was made by C. C. Brown, who gave a résumé of what was needed build the road, and the many adntages a good driveway would be to both cities. Further discussion was opened, and J. W. Wood wanted to ow of Mr. Brown if the right of way could be obtained through Lincoln Judge Eaton said he had noticed an article saying that the Supervisors had given patronage for a road from Los Angeles to Santa Monica, but whether this was so, he was unacquainted with the facts in the case. He thought if such was the case the Su pervisors might do something for this city.

such was the case the Su pervisors inight do something for this city.

Mr. Wood said the county fund for road purposes was $57,000, and that the Board of Supervisors should be called upon to help build the road. Additional money could be collected from both cities and along the route to put the boulevard in first-class shape.

Mr. Eaton was of the opinion the Council of Los Angeles should be waited upon to build their part, the county to build as far as South Passadena, and this city and that thriving village would take care of the rest, provided the Board of Supervisors would build the bridge. On motion of B. S. Eaton a committee was appointed to confer with the City Council of Los Angeles and the Board of Supervisors to formulate a plan of action for carrying through the project.

E. H. Lockwood of South Pasadena thought that a definite plan ought to be decided upon to ask aid of the property-holders in securing the right of way, the grant of land necessary to build the road, and the planting of shade trees, watering, etc.

W. U. Masters suggested that two members of the committee be chosen from South Pasadena, and that it con-

Board of Trade.

The committee, as named by the Chair, is composed of B. S. Eaton, W. M. Masters, E. H. Lockwood, J. W. Vandevort, C. C. Brown, W. L. Carter and W. H. Wiley.

After the committee had been named Mr. Eaton asked for instructions and enlightenment in furthering the pro-

Mr. Eaton asked for instructions and enlightenment in furthering the project. Mr. Wood and Mr. Buchanan said they thought the committee was appointed to determine all matters without getting the consent of the meeting, and as they were gentlemen of ability the public would be taken care of by placing the business in their hands. On motion of J. W. Buchanan the committee was empowered to add the committee was empowered to add new recruits to their membership along the line.

Speeches were now in order, which were of a humorous nature, during which Mr. Brown nominated B. S. Eaton as chairman of the committee. the meeting then adjourned and the committee went into a session of the

SAYS HE IS MISREPRESENTED. The question of a granting of franchise to the rapid transit systems which seek to enter the heart of the city still continues to be the leading topic of conversation. In talking over these projects, a great many people seem to forget that the consent of property-holders is of first consequence before a railroad can be built. J. S. Mills, who owns a subdivision near the Raymond, has been put on record as opposing the project by refusing a right of way through his property. All of such statements Mr. Mills denies, and emphatically says he does not want another line of railroad through his land. A glance at the map will show that a line of railroad borders the entire east side of the subdivision, and the Altadena track cuts through the southern and out of the eastern portion. Mr. Mills says his property is too much cut had a say his eastern portion. Mr. Mills says his property is too much cut up, and another road would make it valueless. As a way out of the difficulty, Mr. Mills, should his private alley be entered, is willing to have the damages assessed by arbitration if the railroad is determined to effect an entrance over his land. This seems to be a fair method of settling all things amicably. BOULEVARD COMMITTEE.

The Boulevard Committee met at 5 o'clock this evening, with B. S. Eaton in the chair. C. C. Brown suggested in the chair. C: C. Brown suggested that a meeting be called at Lincoln Park and Garvanza to talk over the project, and have committees appointed all along the route, to have unity of action. Then'a consultation with the full committee and the Board of Supervisors would no doubt effect the desired object. On motion of Mr. Brown, B. S. Eaton and E. H. Lockwood were appointed to arrange for a public meeting of the people of Garvanza and Lincoln Park. The committee leaves this city in a four-in-hand on Thursday coin Park. The committee neaves the city in a four-in-hand on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock to look over the route as far as Garvanza.

NO MEETING BECAUSE THE MAYOR WAS NOT PRESENT.

The Medical Examiners to Report Next Week, When a General Slaughter Will Take Place—All but About 35 Men Examined.

Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock was the time for the regular weekly meeting of the Police Commission, but at that hour not a single member of the board was present. Mr. Bild-errain, however, came in a few min-utes later, and was followed by Mr.

About 2:30 o'clock a telep sage was received from Mr. Kno residence, saying that he was sick a could not attend. Mayor Hazard h could not attend. Mayor Hazard had not as yet put in an appearance, and the telephone was called into requisition, and every place where he was likely to be was communicated with, but to no effect, the nearest that he was caught being at the California Club, which place he had left about half an hour before the message was received. It was stated that the Police Surgeon had not yet concluded the medical examination of the appointees, and the Clerk, stating that there was no special business requiring attention, Messrs. Furrey and Bilderrain adjourned the meeting until next Wednesday afternoon at 20° clock.

There were still about 35 men to examined when the physician clock his labors last night, but he expects finish up by tomorrow noon, if nothin happens. The doctors then go on the entire list, and determine up those who are disqualified for happens. The doctors then go over the entire list, and determine upon those who are disqualified for any physical cause. This will, of course, take some time, but they will probably be able to present a full report to the board at the first regular weekly meeting. As all the appointments were made subject to the medical examination, it will be seen that so far there have been no permanent or final confirmations, nor will there be until the certificates are filed with the board, and duly passed upon. There will doubtless be a considerable number who will fail to pass, but about what the percentage is cannot number who will fail to pass, but about what the percentage is cannot be learned, as the physicians do not think it proper to give out anything for publication in advance of its presentation to the board. Besides this, it is more than likely that when the permanent force is made up, there will be quite a number of changes, as the Commissioners have been very how looking up records, etc., during busy looking up records, etc., during the past few days. At present every thing is unsettled, and but little will be done until affairs are straightened

Could Not Keep Her.

Several weeks ago a small darky named Clara Williams, aged 12 years, named Clara Williams, aged 12 years, was turned over to the police by her mother, who could do nothing with her. She was committed to the Girls' Home by Justice Austin, and nothing more was heard of the case until yesterday morning, when a telephone message was received from the home asking that the patrol wagon be sent out at once for the girl. It appears that she had utterly demoralized the institution, broke the locks to doors, smashed her bed, and raised Cain generally, and when the officers arrived she was skinning up and down the fence like a monkey. She was brought to the station and locked up, and this morning the Judge will try to settle on some disposition to be made of her.

a communication from Mrs. Prescott was read and placed on file. Miss Kelso was authorized to purchase necessary supplies for the library. As the rooms in the new City Hall will be ready for the library in about four weeks, and the board entered into a long discussion as to the best method of fixing the rooms, etc.

A discussion followed on the possibility of securing funds with which to purchase books which are needed to make a good library. It was admitted that there were but about 5000 books in the library, when it should contain from 40,000 to 60,000 to make it a credit to the city. The impossibility of obtaining any funds from the city, except for the payment of running expenses, was also admitted, and it was agreed that some other plan must be adopted. The Librarian was instructed to obtain figures showing what other libraries are, and, till the directors agreed, to suggest plans for a contemplated call upon the citizens who are interested in the welfare of the city to furnish funds for the placing of the library on a proper footing. The board then adjourned, subject to the call of the president.

There was a time when only elderly ladies would wear congress boots. But totay as many young house-keepers wear them as old. Why? Because a good fitting congress boot keeps the foot in shape better than slippers. They are not only easier, but are better support for the ankles. A person is much less fatigued at night after wearing those shoes than button boots or slippers.
